

Job Title Product Manager – web securityLocation*Reports to*Type of position Full-time Part-time Contractor Intern / StudentJOB DESCRIPTION*Job description:

- Be part of the product management team; work closely with R&D to deliver quality products on schedule.
- Produce detailed functional requirements specifications.
- Produce technical marketing oriented papers.
- Conduct research in various areas and present research to management.
- Serve as the knowledge focal point for the different departments in the company.
- Performs product release scoping and features prioritization.
- Identify opportunities for improvement in the company's products on an ongoing basis.

Requirements:

- Team player with ability to work independently.
- Quick thinker, creative, analytically oriented, self-motivated and results driven.
- Vast experience in writing detailed documentation.
- Strong technical aptitude (Computer Science or Engineering training preferred).
- 3+ years of technical product management or system engineering experience, with solid track record of developing and launching successful products.
- Excellent communication and decision-making skills.
- Well organized and process-oriented, must be capable of managing many projects simultaneously.
- R&D background – must
- Fluent English.
- Security and/or networking experience - Significant advantage.

OTHER REQUIREMENTSDate posted 17/12/2009Contact details info@communittech.co.il